Sion and Shannon Alford are the founders of 247Worship Ministries located in Arlington, Texas, as well as the founders of Heart of Zion Music and 247Worship Music. Sion and Shannon travel exclusively to minister through Word and song to congregations as well as praise and worship teams who desire an intimacy with God that goes beyond the music to a place of continual relationship with the Father.

Both Sion and Shannon are known internationally for their unique writing style of praise and worship music. Since 1995, this duo of praise and worship ministry has recorded seven projects which have been met with phenomenal response worldwide. In their latest release, "I Will Follow," Sion and Shannon take it to another level with the collaborative efforts of a new team and exciting new band.

After nearly 15 years of full-time, on staff music ministry within the local church, Sion, Shannon and the 247Worship Music team now travel around the globe teaching, equipping, and training leaders through concerts, conferences, seminars and church services.
